

SEE NIGERIA, THROUGH MY EYES

VICTOR POLITIS invites you to celebrate the launch of 'Nigeria Through the Eyes of a Passerby', a coffee-table book featuring over 300 candid photographs revealing the similarities of life in the markets, streets and waterways of Nigeria.

Sunday, 2nd November 2008

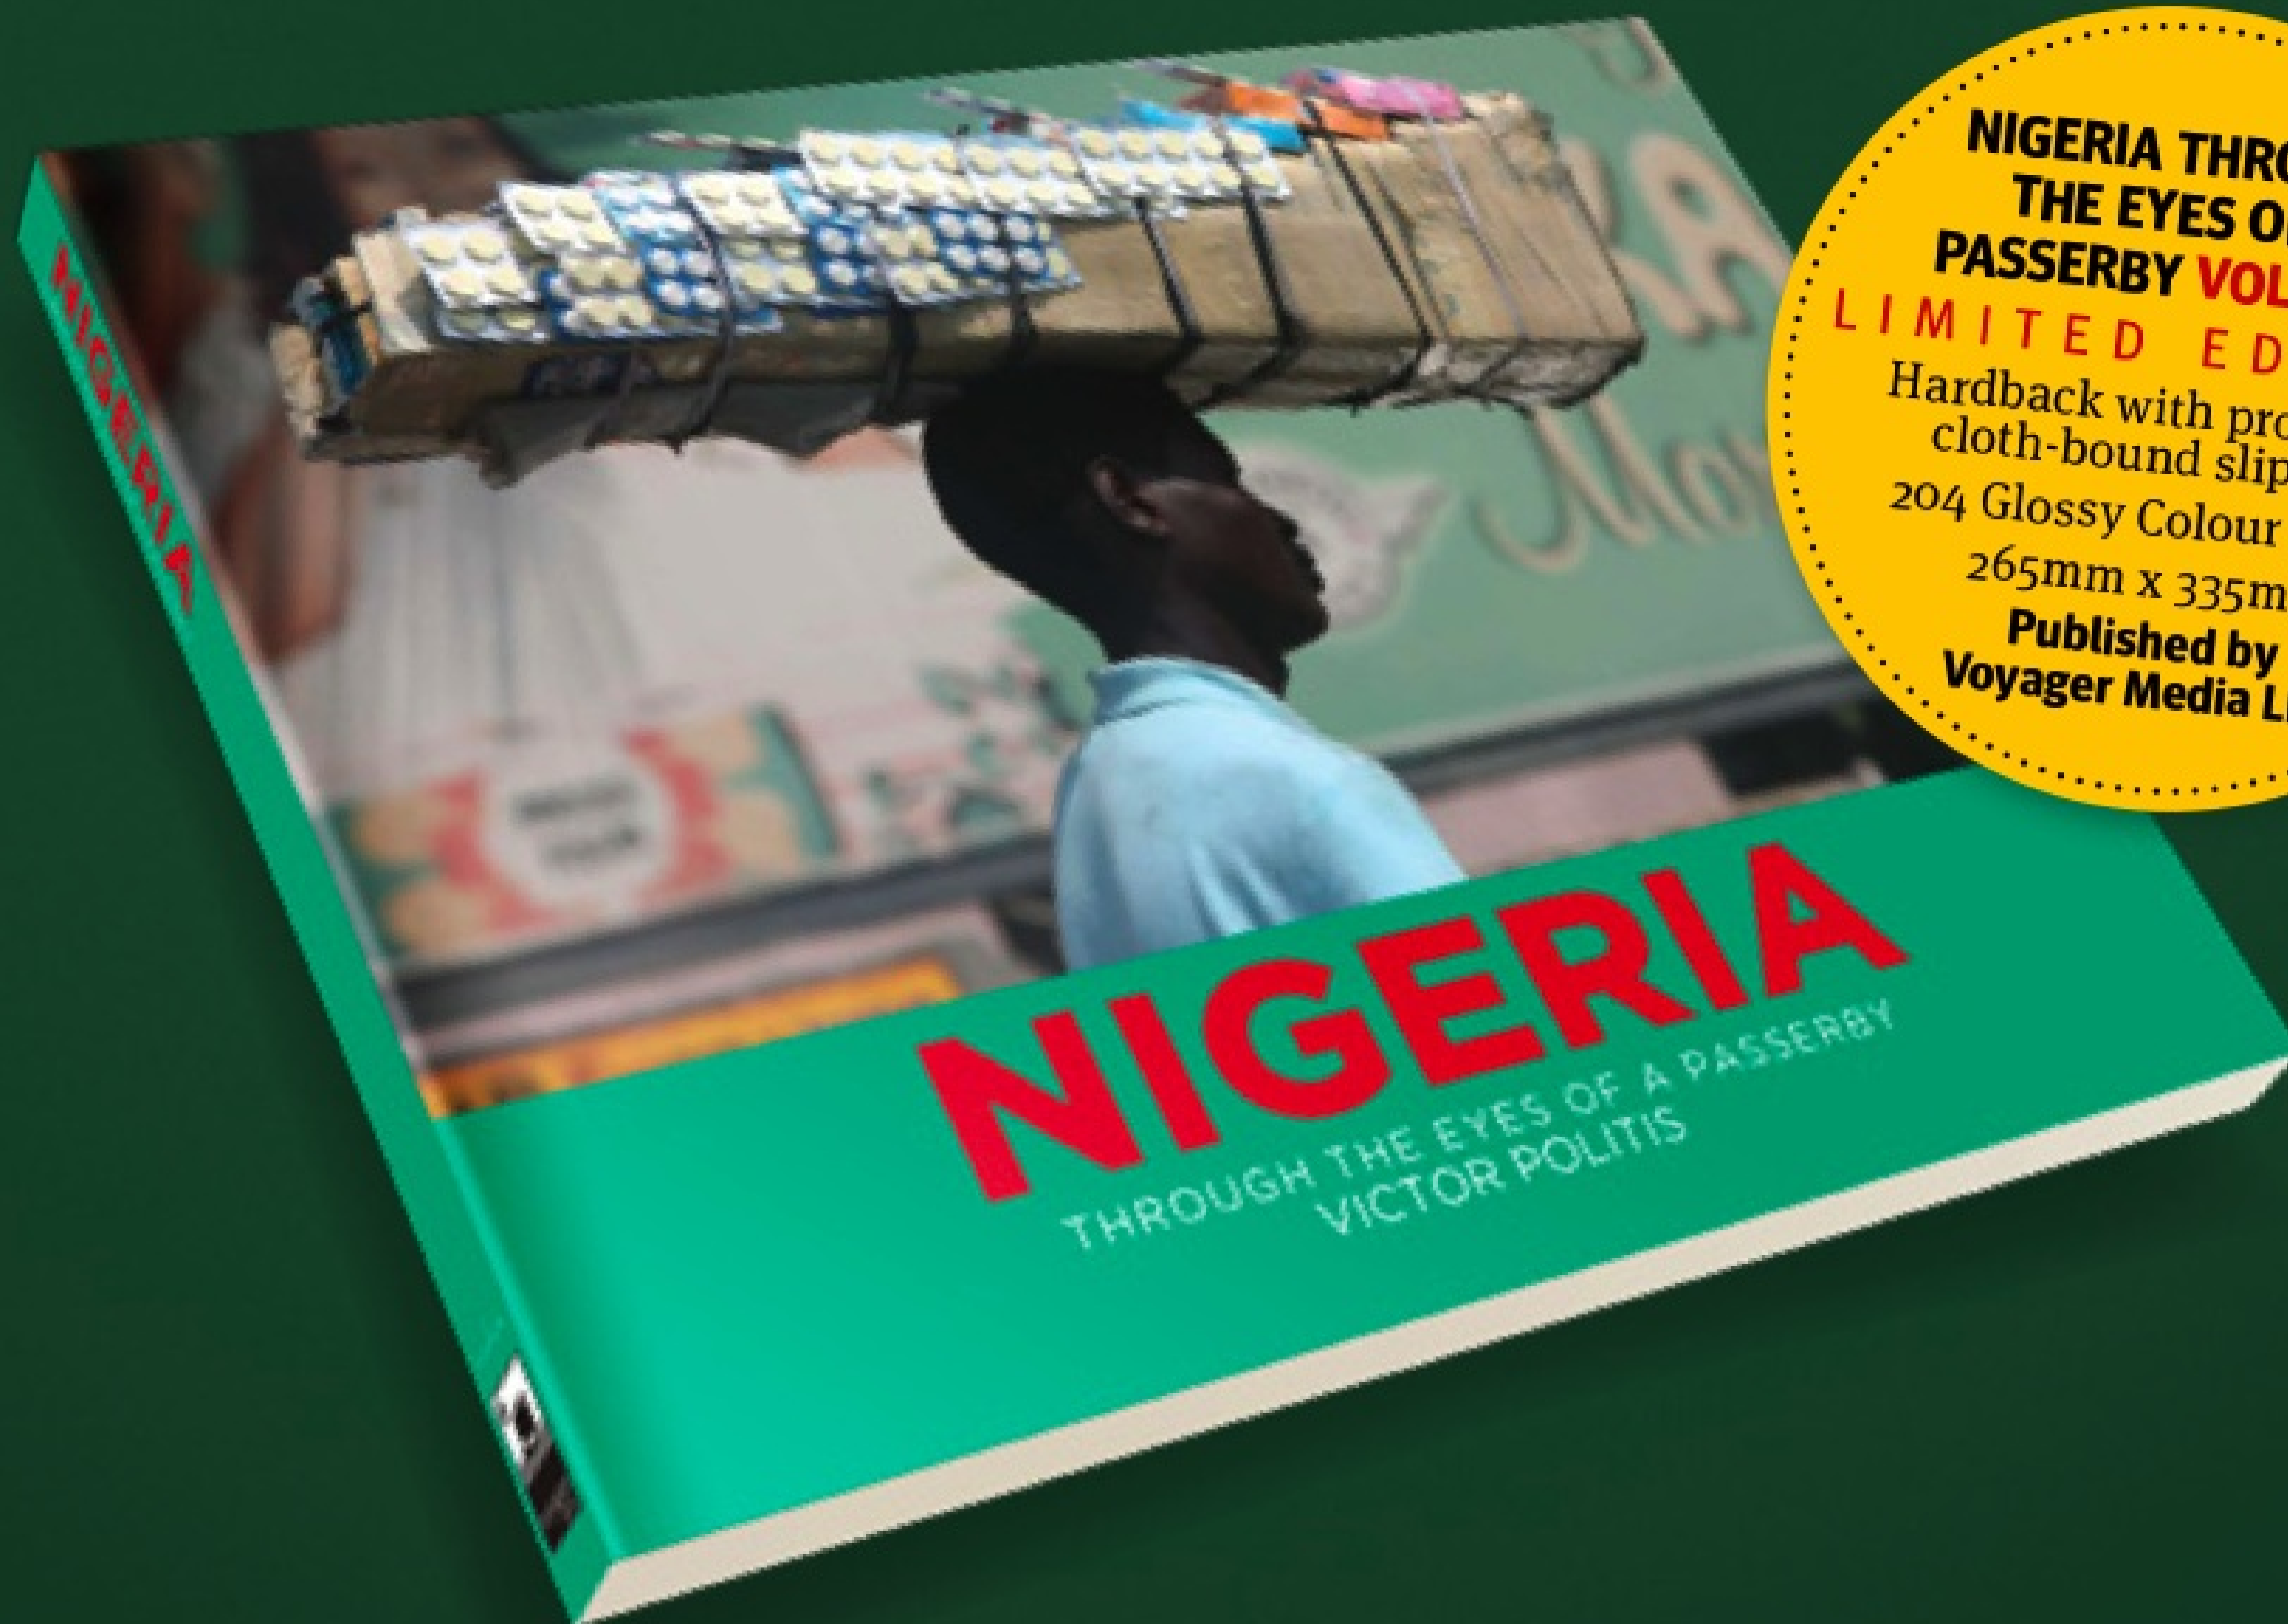

Didi Museum

175 Akin Adesola Street
Victoria Island, Lagos

4 until 7pm

RSVP to victor@vpolitits.com before Sunday, 26 October

Out November 2008

NIGERIA THROUGH THE EYES OF A
PASSERBY VOLUME I
LIMITED EDITION
Hardback with protective
cloth-bound slipcase
204 Glossy Colour Pages
265mm x 335mm
Published by Voyager Media LLC

Quintessential Nigeria comes to life in this limited-edition coffee-table book featuring over 300 stunning colour photographs, revealing the startling similarities of life in the markets, backstreets and waterways of Nigeria.

What the sponsors say...

“Our vibrant, exhilarating and breathtaking country is extraordinary. In these images are a tale of beauty and openness; of a unique people and diverse cultures.”

UNIC

“This book is a veritable window through which the world may view the limitless potential that is Nigeria”

Templars

“These pages portray the entrepreneurial aspirations of the Nigerian people. We are proud to be associated with the Nigerian story as told through Victor’s lens.”

Vetiva