THE SACRED VALLEY OF

The Inca, Cuzco and Peru flags fly together over the Cathedrals of Cuzco during the festivals which bring together the religion of the Spanish with the magical beliefs of ancient forms of worship. It is here that myth and history merge. It is here that the Inca roads, the towns, the huge biodiversity of Peru and especially the people in remote villages and their traditions are a living example of the sacred and monumental Andean spirit. Our first visit was just an introduction to the place that may very well be home to one of the greatest civilizations in Latin America.

THE INCAS

Les drapeaux Inca, de Cuzco et du Pérou flottent ensemble au-dessus des Cathédrales de Cuzco pendant les festivals qui réunissent la religion héritée des Espagnols et les croyances magiques d'anciens rites. C'est ici que mythe et histoire se croisent. C'est ici que les routes incas, les villes, les traditions et l'extraordinaire biodiversité du Pérou représentent un exemple vivant de l'esprit sacré et monumental des Andes. Cette première visite fut une introduction étonnante à ce qui peut être considéré comme l'une des plus grandes civilisations de l'Amérique Latine.
